3. CONFIDENTIALITY

3.1 Whistleblower identity must be kept confidential

4. PROTECTION AGAINST VICTIMISATION

You must not cause or threaten any detriment to any person for a reason which includes that they or any other person:

- is or proposes to be a whistleblower; or

5. INVESTIGATIONS OF INFORMATION DISCLOSED UNDER THIS STANDARD

When a disclosure is made which may fall under this standard, the following steps must be followed except where, in the opinion of the Whistleblower Protection Officer, it would be inappropriate or unreasonable in the circumstances to do so:

- any person listed in section 2.3 who receives the information must provide the information to the Whistleblower Protection Officer as soon as practicable, removing any information which identifies or may identify the discloser of the information (the potential whistleblower) prior to doing so (unless the potential whistleblower has provided their consent to that disclosure);

- as soon as practicable, the Whistleblower Protection Officer must determine whether the disclosure falls within the scope of this standard and, if so, appoint an investigator with no personal interest in the matter to conduct an investigation into the matters disclosed, if they determine it to be necessary or appropriate;
- the investigator must conduct any investigation in an objective and fair manner, ensuring to provide any employee who has been adversely mentioned in information provided by a whistleblower an opportunity to respond to the allegations made in respect of them prior to any adverse findings being made;
- the outcome of the investigation must be reported to the Board, and may be reported to the whistleblower and any persons affected as the Whistleblower Protection Officer considers appropriate;
- subject to the exceptions allowed under section 3.2 of this standard or otherwise by law, the identity of a whistleblower (or information that is likely to lead to their identity becoming known) must be kept confidential at all times during and after the investigation (including in any reporting to the Board or to any persons affected). All persons responsible for or involved in an investigation must take all reasonable steps to reduce the risk that a whistleblower will be identified; and
- a whistleblower may raise any concerns or complaints regarding this standard or their treatment with the Whistleblower Protection Officer.

6. BOARD REPORTING

8. HOW THIS STANDARD INTERACTS WITH WHISTLEBLOWER LAWS

By making a disclosure in accordance with this standard, you may also be afforded protection under the whistleblower laws.

While this standard principally deals with internal disclosures, the whistleblower laws also protect some types of disclosure made to external parties (such as to legal representatives, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission, to the Commissioner of Taxation, members of parliament or journalists). Any person who is a whistleblower under the whistleblower laws must be treated in accordance with, and is entitled to the protections afforded by, this standard.

For more information about these laws, see the information available on the ASIC website and the ATO website.

Any breach of this standard by an officer, employee or contractor will be taken seriously by IGO, and may be the subject of a separate investigation and/or disciplinary action.
