

APPOINTMENT OF INTERIM CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

IGO Limited ("IGO") today announces the appointment of Mr Ian Rowe as Interim Chief Financial Officer, effective immediately. Mr Rowe has been with IGO for nearly five years, most recently holding the position of General Manager Finance.

The appointment follows a deliberate succession process undertaken by the Board and Executive Leadership Team, with consideration of the capabilities required for the role and the future needs of the business.

Mr Rowe is a Chartered Accountant with ASX-listed and resource sector experience across Australia and internationally. He brings deep expertise in financial reporting, corporate finance, treasury and capital management and has played an important role in supporting IGO's financial governance, strategic planning and Board reporting activities.

IGO Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer Ivan Vella said: "Having worked closely with Ian since I commenced at IGO two and a half years ago, I have been impressed with the breadth and depth of his financial expertise, commercial acumen and strategic mindset. Ian is a respected, values-driven leader who is well positioned to support the Company as we continue to execute our strategy. Ian has been an important part of our succession planning, and this appointment reflects the Board's confidence in his leadership."

Mr Rowe said: "I appreciate the confidence that the Board and Ivan have placed in me. IGO has a strong team, a clear strategy and a unique portfolio of assets. I look forward to working closely with the Board, Executive Leadership Team and our people as we continue to execute our strategy and position the business for long-term success".

Mr Rowe's appointment is interim, reflecting our commitment to a measured succession process whilst providing continuity and stability in the Chief Financial Officer role. A further update will be provided in the coming months.
