

Application for IGO's Corporate Giving Program

At IGO we see beyond, taking meaningful action today to shape a brighter, better tomorrow, for our people, community and environment.

We give back by investing our return into community projects through IGO's corporate giving program.

Our corporate giving program aims to create lasting change by fostering a world where all children can grow, learn and succeed building the foundations for a more equitable and healthier future.

IGO will only make consider accredited educational institutions, sports organisations, charities and not-for-profit organisations. As normal practice, IGO will not make donations to individuals or to for-profit businesses for its corporate giving program.

Further, to be eligible for IGO's corporate giving program, a potential recipient organisation must:

- possess and operate in accordance with a Code of Conduct that is materially aligned to IGO's Code of Conduct
- be an accredited educational institution, sports organisation, charity and not-for-profit organisation
- not be directly involved in gambling, recreational or illegal drugs, tobacco, armaments or alcohol (except for those charities and organisations specifically dedicated to tackling addiction or drug abuse)
- not cause harm to animals for the purposes of either sport or entertainment
- not have, as their main purpose, the dissemination of political or religious information and do not otherwise use their charitable work to encourage support for political or religious causes.

As normal practice, IGO's corporate giving program will not extend to individuals or for-profit businesses.

Whilst retaining an absolute discretion to exercise its corporate giving program however it determines appropriate, IGO's will preference organisations and initiatives that have long term goals and objectives and where possible:

- provide sustainable outcomes;
- are directly providing a service to targeted beneficiaries; and
- take an innovative approach to their projects and initiatives.

On the above basis, if your organisation is seeking consideration as a recipient of IGO's corporate giving program, please complete this form and send it, along with all supporting documents, to:

IGO Limited, PO box 496, South Perth, WA 6951
